

Our green route links the beautiful, regenerated area of St Pancras and King’s Cross with the hustle and bustle of Covent Garden making its way through Bloomsbury en route. Much changed in the last decade, St Pancras and King’s Cross now offers a smorgasbord of cultural and foodie delights as well as a walking route along the canal to the famous Camden Market. The route also links the key train stations in these areas and the hotels in Bloomsbury to our longer, central red and blue tours which you can connect to from our Covent Garden stop.
